Skidmore College Office of Institutional Research

Mission Statement

ifhe Office of Inpatibletional Research (OIR) at Skidmore College conducts research such work is used for internal ossible.

ederal, State, and Accreditation (IPEDS, NYSED, Middle States, NCAA, etc.) ublisher guidebook surveys and associations (US News, Princeton Review, a Set, etc.)

Consortia and data-sharing agreements (HEDS, College Board, CICU, New Maintains official enrollment numbers and fulfills requests including and IR website outine requests from college constituencies (department review, grant etc.)

esearch:

research studies in support of campus priorities and goals that inform the radministration, college committees, etc. Priority is placed on research that imply interesting to know. Examples include student success research, peer marking, decision support studies, occasional papers, department & ance, ratings of teaching analyses, grant-related research and assessment, dinates all-College surveys and report findings (NSSE, Non-Returning Student Survey, climate surveys, COACHE, etc.). Administers the all-College Student d Teaching process

Assessment

sessment to inform decision-making, promote student success, and ensure ness.

the Faculty Director of Assessment provides support, guidance, and institutional leadership, administrative divisions, and academic departments sessment, assessment of student learning outcomes, general education istrative objectives.

and supports Middle States accreditation.