

GUIDELINES FOR SKIDMORE'S ACADEMIC AFFILIATIONS¹

The Purposes of an Academic Program Affiliation: Affiliated programs offer students academic opportunities that are not available through the regular Skidmore curriculum – for example, through special programs abroad, domestic exchange programs, research facilities, courses, internships, and geographical and cultural resources. In addition, an institutional review and approval and individual courses would need departmental review and approval. Typically the students pay tuition and fees to their home institution and receive their regular home-institution financial aid or some portion of it. (See OCSE's website for a current list of Exchange Programs.)

Procedures for Proposing an Academic Affiliation:

Members of the faculty or administration interested in establishing a new academic affiliation or making serious modifications to an existing affiliation should consult with
