

What are the different types of travel seminars?

There are 2 types of travel seminars:

Standalone travel seminar This program is not connected to any course on campus; rather, the course is delivered in its entirety off campus. is program model may be offered during then the travel summer breaks.

Travel seminar incorporated into an ocampus courseThis program is a combination of an-compus course and an offcampus academic experience the travel seminar. The ocampus courses offered during the fall or spring semester. The offmpus portion may be offered during the history, spring semester. The offmpus portion may be offered during the history and the fall semester.

- Spring semeste to the springsen
- Spring semeste final examsor dir semester
- Winter break sta
- Summer break summer session

Why do travel seminars differ in the amount of credits grant?

The number of credits awarded is based postiuctional hours on site and number of days of the program. Credits will vary based on those two aspects of the travel component.

What is the application process for a travel seminar

The application process for each travel seminar may differ. While there is a formal application that must be completed, the questions presented in the application will be specific to the travel seminar. Additionally, faculty directors and OCSEy elect to hold imperson interviews or request additional written materials from applicants which will be pertinent to the specific travel seminar.

Can you apply for a travel seminar without attending an information session?

Yes. Information sessions are conducted to give students an opportunity to learn more detable travel seminar from the faculty directors and OCSE and pose specific questions that may not be answered in the program brochure. Attendance is not mandatory in order to apply as travel seminar brochures and applications can be found on the OCSE webpage (http://cms.skidmore.edu/ocse/programs/short_term/index.cm)

Is there a limit on the number of travel seminathat you can apply too participate on?

There is no limit on the number of travel seminars that you can apply to or participate on. However, each travel seminar has its own separate and independent application process. Due to limited space travel seminars can be highly no petitive.

When are students notified of the results of the application process?

The notification process will differ for each travel seminar; however, ission decisions are generally made within 2 week of the application deadline. All applicants will be notified by email of the results.

What happens if I am waitlisted for a travel seminar?

Studentswho are waitlisted for a travel seminar will be advised as to their numerical standing on the waitlist. A deadline will be given as to when they mustifyofOCSE if they wish to remain on threitlist or withdraw, surrendering their positionShould a student choose to remain on threitlist for a travel seminar with an orcampus course, he/she must register for and take three mustourse. He/she must understand that there is no guaranted participation on the travel seminar venture taking the oncampus course Wait-listed students' participation on the travel seminar contingent upon another student's inability to take part in the part and take three participation on the travel seminar contingent upon another student's inability to take part in the part in th

How do I register for a travel seminar?

Students cannot register for withdraw from)a travel seminar themselves. OCSE will work with the Registrar's Office to register all accepted students.

Can I enroll in a travel seminar as Pass/Fail?

No. All travel seminar participants will receive a letter grade.

Can I audit a travel seminar?

Full-time matriculated undergraduate students cannot (-3((d)2(e)--3(h)2-3(ra)11(v)-5(e6-3(l s)-(s)-7(e)8(m)-6

Starbuck Center 202 Tel: 1-518-580-5355 Email: ocse@skidmore.edu Web: www.ski dmore.edu/ocse

